TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Our company has engaged the expert services of Best Management Group to assist us with the planning, feasibility and design on a new luxury resort apartment complex in coastal Queensland.

We have benefited greatly from the depth of expertise the company has in the accommodation and tourism sectors. Developing a substantial new property requires an enormous amount of specialist expertise and Best Management Group has worked very effectively with us and our various stakeholders in the project. The company has contributed very professionally to help achieve successful outcomes.

David Catterall and his small team of experts are always accessible, commercially practical and most professional in their provision of services, which we continue to utilize.

Yours sincerely

Sandy Murdoch
Director
